2. COMPLIANCE OFFICER

- 2.1 The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for compliance with the policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of UPSI, pre-clearance of Trades, approving the 'Trading Plan' and monitoring the same in accordance with the PIT Regulations.
- 2.2 The Compliance Officer shall provide report on insider trading to the Board / audit committee, once in a year.
- 2.3 The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for determining when the trading window may be closed and re-opened. The provisions on 'Trading Window' are discussed in detail under paragraph 3 of Part II of the Code.
- 2.4 The Compliance Officer has been empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of restrictions on contra Trades. The provisions on contra Trade are discussed in detail under paragraph 4 of Part II of the Code.
- 2.5 The Compliance Officer shall maintain records of all the declarations in the appropriate form given by all the Insiders, for a minimum period of 5 (five) years.

3. PRESERVATION OF "UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION" OR "UPSI"

- 3.1 Employees and Designated Person(s) shall maintain confidentiality of all UPSI and shall not communicate, provide, or allow access to UPSI to any person, except where such communication is in furtherance of Legitimate Purpose, performance of duties and discharge of legal obligations.
- 3.2 UPSI is to be handled on a 'need to know' basis i.e., it should be disclosed only to those within the Company and to the core members as defined by the chief executive officer, who need the information in furtherance of Legitimate Purpose, performance of duties and/ or to discharge their duty and whose possession of information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information. The UPSI shall be communicated, allowed access to or provided in a secure location.
- 3.3 The Company shall ensure that all files including soft copies containing UPSI are kept secure and are password protected, such that the information can only be accessed by persons who 'need to know' such information in furtherance of Legitimate Purpose, performance of duties and/ or to discharge their duty.

- 3.4 If, in the performance of duties, it becomes necessary for the employees of the Company and/ or Designated Person(s) to disclose UPSI to any person outside the Company such as the Fiduciaries, the employees of the Company and/ or Designated Person(s) shall ensure that a confidentiality agreement is entered into with such Fiduciaries prior to providing access to UPSI and such Fiduciaries are informed about the restrictions on communication of UPSI and trading while in possession of UPSI as contemplated under the PIT Regulations.
- 3.5 Chinese wall procedures and physical, operational and electronic arrangements through bio metric access (collectively 'Chinese Walls') shall be used to manage confidential information and prevent the inadvertent spread and misuse of UPSI. In general, Chinese Walls separate areas that have access to UPSI ("Insider Areas") from those who do not have such access ("Public Areas"). As such, Chinese Walls are designed to operate as barriers to the passing of UPSI and other confidential information.
- (a) Where Chinese Wall arrangements are in place employees and/ or Designated Person(s) working within an Insider Area are prohibited from communicating any price sensitive information to employees in Public Areas without prior approval of the Chief Investor Relations Officer / Compliance Officer.
- (b) Employees within a Chinese Wall shall be responsible to ensure the Chinese Wall is not breached deliberately or inadvertently. Employees should take care to ensure that UPSI is not posted on IT systems that are available outside specific Insider Areas. Known or suspected breaches of the Chinese Wall must be referred to the Chief Investor Relations Officer immediately.
- 3.6 The establishment of Chinese Walls is not intended to suggest that UPSI can circulate freely within Insider Areas. The 'need-to-know' principle shall be fully in effect within Insider Areas. In exceptional circumstances, employees of the Company and/ or Designated Persons(s), as the case may be, from the Public Areas may be allowed to 'cross the wall' and given access to UPSI by following the 'need-to-know' principle, under intimation to the Chief Investor Relations Officer. The Chief Investor Relations Officer would duly record reasons for crossing the wall in writing. Such persons shall be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of UPSI, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.
- 3.7 The Compliance Officer in consultation with the managing director/ chief executive officer or chief financial officer of the Company shall decide on how and when any person(s) should be brought 'inside' on any proposed or on-going sensitive transaction(s) and they shall be considered an "insider" for purposes of this Code and due notice shall be given to such persons. The Company shall enter into confidentiality/ non-disclosure agreements with such persons prior to providing access to UPSI to them.

3.8 Further the Company shall:

- (a) Identify list of all employees, Designated Persons and connected persons who have access to UPSI or are in receipt of UPSI.
- (b) Maintain structured digital database containing names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom UPSI is shared. Such database is to be maintained with time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the data and shall contain the following information:
 - (i) Name of the person/ entity(ies) with whom UPSI is shared, along with their permanent account number (“PAN”) or any other valid identifier authorized by the law where PAN is not available.
 - (ii) Name of Designated Person(s) along with their immediate relatives, along with the PAN or any other valid identifier authorized by the law where PAN is not available.

3.9 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with:–

- (a) a transaction that would entail an obligation to make an open offer under the SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011 and any amendment that may be in force, from time to time (“Takeover Regulations”) where the Board is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company;
- (b) a transaction that would not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the Board is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute UPSI is disseminated to be made Generally Available Information at least 2 (two) Trading Days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form, as the Board may determine.

The aforesaid communication of UPSI shall be undertaken in compliance with the provisions under the PIT Regulations and any other applicable law. Further, the Board shall require such persons, with whom the UPSI is being shared, to execute agreements to contract confidentiality/ non-disclosure inter alia requiring them to keep the information received confidential and restrict them to Trade in Securities of the Company, when in possession of UPSI.

3.10 Defences to trading while in possession of UPSI

- (a) In the following scenarios insiders can trade while having hands on any UPSI:
- (b) Symmetric UPSI Trades:
 - (i) both the Insiders holding symmetric UPSI and had made a conscious and informed trade decision can undertake off-market trades;
 - (ii) such off-market trades shall be through; and
 - (iii) The insiders shall report the trade to the company within 2 working days & Company should in turn notify to Stock Exchanges.

4. RESTRICTION ON TRADING

- 4.1 Designated Person(s) and Insider(s) may Trade in Securities subject to compliance with the PIT Regulations and this Code.
- 4.2 No Designated Person(s) and Insider(s) shall Trade in Securities when in possession of UPSI and where a person has undertaken a Trade in Securities has been in possession of UPSI, his Trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.
- 4.3 Trades may be permitted in certain cases as under, subject to compliance with the PIT Regulations:
 - (a) Off-market inter-se transfer between Insider(s) in possession of the same UPSI and both parties had made a conscious and informed Trade decision.
 - (i) The UPSI has not been obtained pursuant to Regulation 3(3) of the PIT Regulations/ paragraph 3.9 of the Code.
 - (ii) The Trades shall be reported to the Company within 2 (two) working days and the Company shall notify the particulars of such Trades to the stock exchange, where its securities are listed, within 2 (two) working days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- (b) block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the UPSI and both parties had made a conscious and informed Trade decision. Provided that the UPSI has not been obtained pursuant to Regulation 3(3) of the PIT Regulations/ paragraph 3.9 of the Code.
- (c) Transaction carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
- (d) Transaction undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
- (e) In the case of non-individual insiders:
 - (i) the individuals who were in possession of such UPSI were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such UPSI when they took the decision to Trade; and
 - (ii) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that PIT Regulations are not violated and no UPSI was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached.
- (f) The Trades were pursuant to a 'Trading Plan' set up in accordance with PIT Regulations/ this Code.

5. TRADING WINDOW

The Company through the Compliance Officer shall specify a trading period, to be called "Trading Window", for trading in Securities. The "Trading Window" may be closed as the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Person(s) can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI.

- 5.1 When the Trading Window is closed, save as otherwise provided, none of the Designated Person(s), their immediate relatives and Insiders, shall Trade in the Securities of the Company during such period of closure.
